Behold the lofty Sky Declares its maker God - And all the starry work, on high
St. Thomas I. M. Proclaim his power abroad

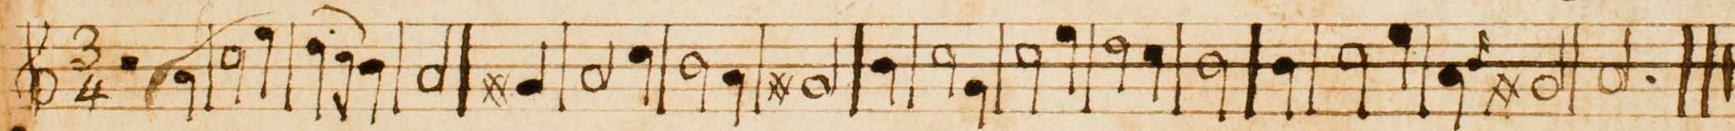

High as the heavens are rais'd Above the Ground we tread
So far the riches of his grace. Our highest thoughts exceed.

Walsall C. M.

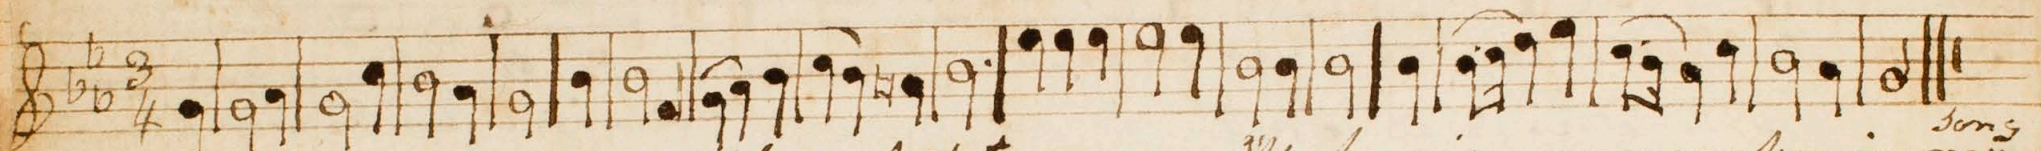

London the morning

Little Merborough. I M -

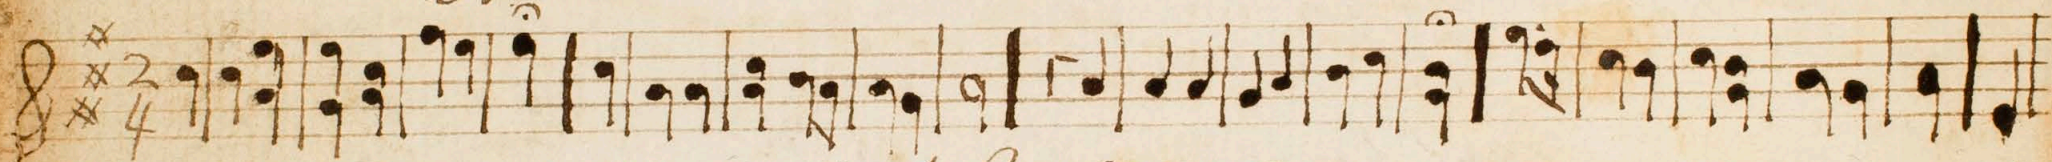

Welcome sweet Day of rest

Lenten L. M.

With all my powers of Heart & tongue, I'll praise my maker in my ^{song}
 Angels shall hear the notes & raise approve the song & join the praise

Nonmouth. L. M.

Arundall L. M.

36

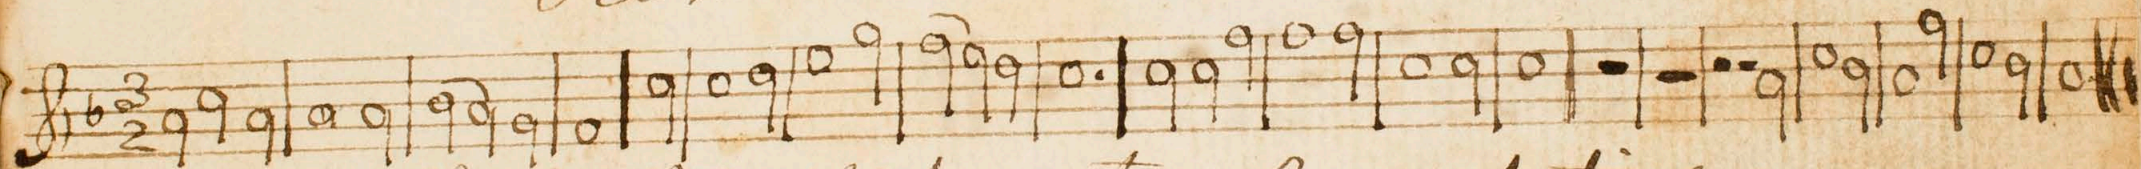

All glory be to God on high And to the death be peace
Good will henceforth from heav'n to men Begin & never cease

Peterborough - C. M.

Once more my soul the rising day salutes my waking eyes
Once more my voice the tribute pay To him that rules the sky

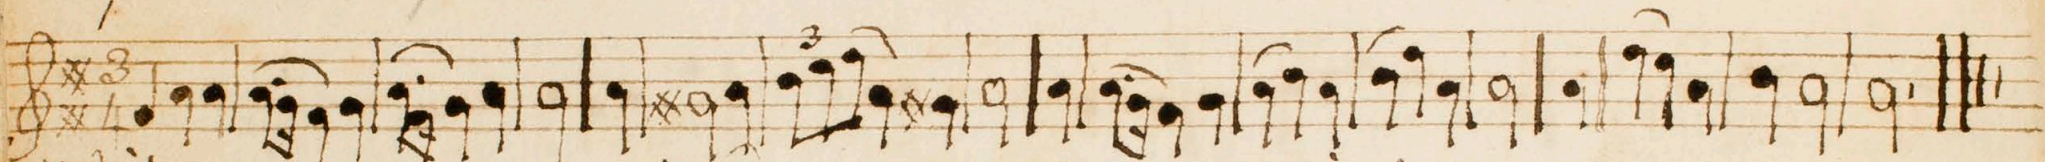

Rothwell L. M.

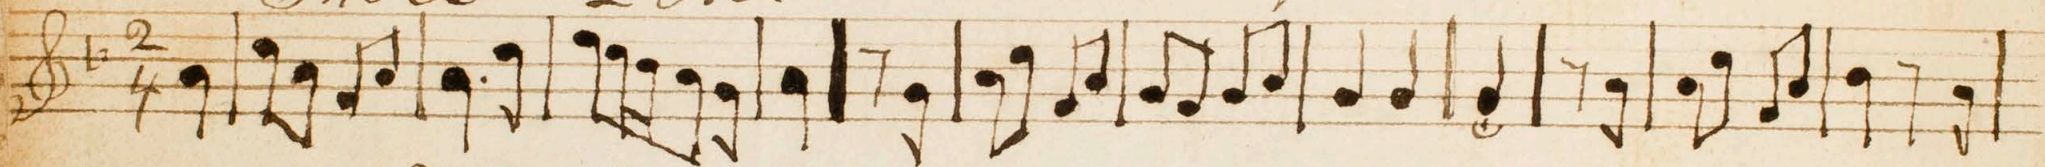

Best be the Father & his love to whose celestial source we owe
Rivers of endless joy above And wells of comfort here below

37

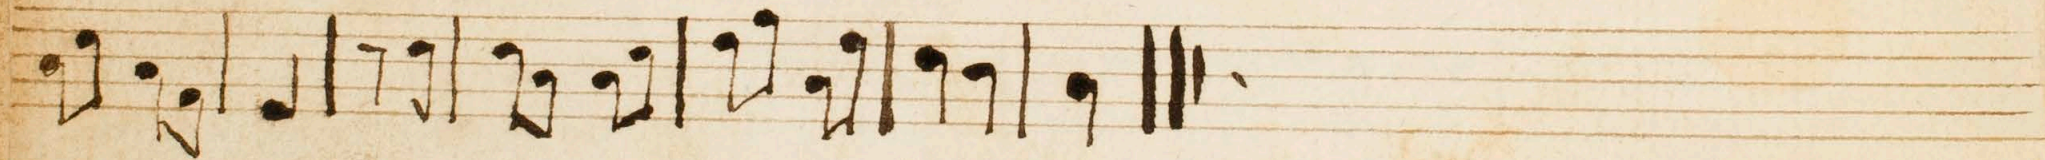

+ Braintree C. M.

While shepherds watch'd their flocks by night.
 All seated on the ground — The Angel of the Lord came down
 Shob I M. And glory shone around. —

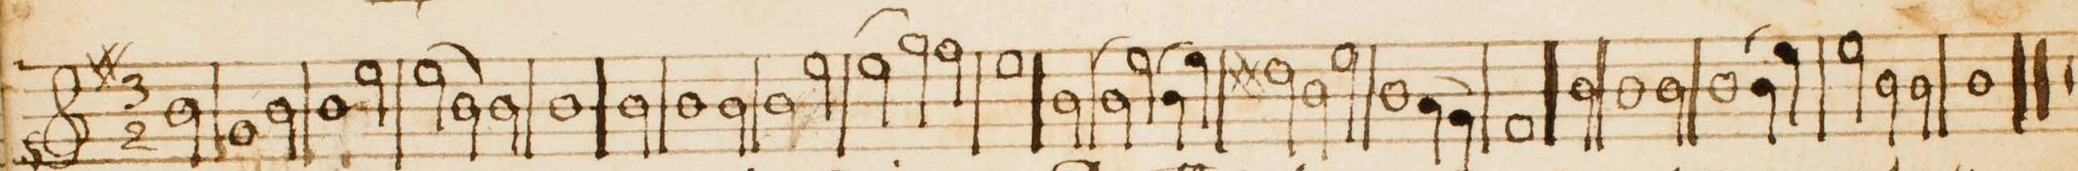

Now shall the trembling mourner come
 And bind his shaves & bear them home

The voice long broke with sighs, shall sing —
 Till heav'n with hallelujahs ring —

Limehouse L. M.

38

In memory of your dying friend Do this he said till time shall end
 Met at my table and received The love of your departed loved

The day glides sweetly o'er their heads Made up of innocence ^{& Love}

And soft and silent as the shade Their nightly minutes gently move

Quick as their throts their joys come on But fly not half so fast away

Their souls are ever bright as noon And calm as summers evenings be -
